1:6-9

- 6 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting Him who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel—
- 7 not that there is another one, but there are some who trouble you and want to distort the gospel of Christ.
- 8 But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach to you a gospel contrary to the one we preached to you, let him be accursed.
- 9 As we have said before, so now I say again: If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to the one you received, let him be accursed.

1829 George Wilson and James Porter were charged with six indictments and found guilty of robbing a federal mail carrier...

1830 Porter was executed, but before Wilson was hanged President Andrew Jackson issued him a pardon,... which he strangely refused.

The U.S. Supreme Court heard the case...

Chief Justice John Marshall wrote the following in the decision:

"A pardon is an act of grace, proceeding from the power entrusted with the execution of the law, which exempts the individual, on whom it is bestowed, from the punishment the law inflicts for a crime he has committed..."
